

If a student who has done an internship with your organization asks to use your name as a reference for a job application, here are some tips:

1. Discuss the type of reference that you will provide with the person who asks you to be a